One of the most important qualities I learned from my parents was hospitality. The word hospitality means receiving people as your guest. My mother and father received people into our home without question. I can't remember any of my friends not being welcomed into our home and feeling part of the family. It's no surprise to me that I worked in hospital ministry for over 25 years. Do you see the connection? "Hospital" is a derivation of "hospital-ity" In other words, I learned the importance of hospitality for others so clearly that I chose a ministry that is based upon hospital-ity. When Jesus speaks about receiving people in today's Gospel, He is speaking about being hospitable to others. For when we show this quality to others, they more easily experience the love and welcome of Jesus from us in their hearts. We see in this weekend's scripture the power of hospitality and how much it means to God. In the first reading the prophet Elisha needed a room to stay in and some food to eat. The woman in the Gospel, quickly welcomes him to dine and stay overnight in her home. He needed sustenance and rest from his difficult labor. The next day, Elisah wants to repay her for her kindness, and asks one of her friends: "Can something be done for her?" "Yes" says the friend: "She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha says: "Call her." In the name of God, he promises her: "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son." And it happens. Do you see the power of the woman's hospitality at work? God loves her so much because she received Elisha with such kindness and openness, that He rewards her with what she always wanted. The Gospel today also follows through with God rewarding people for simply giving a cup of cold water to drink to someone who is thirsty. The theme that keeps coming up in St. Matthew's Gospel is how powerfully God rewards Pure Love & Pure Generosity. These are such important signs of hospitality that we are to practice, that Jesus says they are more important than loving one's own family. In today's world, we are in a crisis. So many countries refuse hospitality to immigrants and refugees. Leaders of countries have put fear in the people's minds that most are criminals and should not be welcomed. How sad the world has become. May we continue to pray for renewal of mind and heart, so that we will get back to doing Jesus' work of welcoming the stranger. ~ Fr. John

The Food Pantry is in need of recycled grocery bags that are in good shape. Also, if you receive the newspaper and want to recycle the bag it comes in, they will gladly accept them as well. Egg cartons are always needed too.

The Homeless Ministry needs canned pasta and beans as well as soft-chew multi-grain bars. Please be sure cans are flip top, as they do not have can openers.

300 Club: Thank you for supporting this fundraiser for our parish. It's a fun and easy way to help the parish. A new club will begin shortly.

How it works: Upon joining the club, you will receive a number. You pay $1 each week for 20 weeks – to retain this number. You may pay weekly or pay in full ($20). Each week, for 20 weeks, five $10 winners are drawn. On the 21st week, the Grand Drawing is held and $1,800.00 in prizes are awarded to the lucky winners: ($500, $400, $300, $200, $100, 4-$50's & 5-$20's. ) This club generates $12,000 annually (2 clubs a year) if we have a full club of 300 parishioners. $5,600 is given back to you, the club members, and $6,400 stays with the parish to help pay expenses.

Captains: Lisa (parish office) 622-5445, Gloria Pilotte 623-8173, or Terry Sylvain 669-2582.

If you would like to help and become a Captain, call the parish office and we'll explain the process.
