Pastor's Corner

As we end the church's year, we take a moment to give thanks to Christ Our King, the King of the Universe. May we recognize that everything we have, our life, our relationships, creation itself, and even the challenges that make us stronger, come to us through Jesus. They are gifts given to us out of God's great love for us. May this awareness fill us with wonder and allow us to respond to life with a spirit of joy, freedom and thankfulness. This coming week we will also be celebrating Thanksgiving. It is a time to enjoy family and friends, through our sharing of a meal together as we recall the first Thanksgiving Day. That was the day when our ancestors turned in gratitude to God for all their gifts. We today accept the simple but profound invitation to see life itself as gift. During busy schedules, worries, and responsibilities, we are called to pause and notice the countless ways God is present and at work in our lives. When we do, gratitude becomes more than a feeling. It becomes a way of living. Throughout this time of the year, look for opportunities to practice gratitude intentional:

* Thank someone who has made a difference in your life.
* Begin or end each day by naming three gifts you are grateful for.
* Spend time noticing God's presence in the ordinary moments of your day.
* Offer a prayer of thanksgiving for both blessings and challenges.

I want to express my gratitude for the many gifts I have received. First, I want to thank Christ the King, who leads me every day into places of love and mercy. I want to thank Christ the King for the wonderful family He has blessed me with, walking the journey of life with me and helping me by their support and love. I want to thank Christ the King for my Franciscan brothers, who continue to strengthen me by their friendship and good example. And finally, I want to thank you for the 19 years you have allowed me to be your priest at Blessed Sacrament Parish. ~ Fr. John

We remember Bob Allard who was called to his eternal rest and to the glory of the Resurrection promised by our Lord. "Grant him eternal rest, O Lord, and may your light shine on him forever. Amen." We offer our prayers and condolences to his family & loved ones.
